About Birchwood Farm

A warm welcome is offered to visitors old and new by the Smith family.

Set in an area of outstanding beauty on the hills above the Derwent Valley on the edge of the Peak District in Derbyshire, this working farm has long been associated with holiday makers since the 1920's.

The main Toilet Block has Free showers and also includes a toilet for disabled guests. Laundry facilities are available with washer and dryer which take tokens. There is also a separate covered dish-washing area with hot water.

The shop includes our reception and is well stocked with a range of goods including food, sweets, ice-cream, toys , newspapers, calor gas and camping gas.

There is a childrens play area and also a chemical toilet disposal point.

The woodland around the site is a mass of bluebells in the spring.

For the benefit of everyone we have some site rules:-

Children must not be left on site without adult supervision.

Small children must be accompanied by an adult when using the toilet block.

No excess noise and strictly no noise after 11pm.

A person or persons behaving in a manner likely to cause a disturbance to the owners or other site occupants shall be asked to leave the site immediately.

We also reserve the right to refuse admission or terminate the occupancy of a site without giving any reason.

The owners of the park do not accept liability for accidents to tents, caravans, motorhomes and guests and from responsibility for loss or damage to personal property
